A Fiber Arts Community

THSG Workshop Linen and Lace

Instructor: Susie Liles
Date: April 24-25, 2024
Location: Mini Time Machine Museum
Time: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Cost: member $210; non-member $ 240
Materials fee: $45
Maximum # of students: 12
Level: Beginning, intermediate or advanced skill level.

Are you afraid to weave with linen? In this workshop, you'll discover that linen is a wonderful, user-friendly fiber and learn the best techniques for warping, weaving, and finishing linen fabrics. Participants will thread four- or eight-shaft looms in various sizes of linen yarns and in round robin fashion, explore Huck lace, Bronson lace, Swedish lace, and various hand-manipulated laces.

About the instructor:

Suzie Liles has taught weaving for 30 years. Suzie is very enthusiastic and loves to share her knowledge. She has taught workshops and seminars for adults and children in the United States and Canada. Liles completed a B.F.A. in Fibers (2004) and an M.F.A. in Fibers (2006) at the University of Oregon.

She is a member of the Handweavers Guild of America, Surface Design Association, and Spinning and Weaving Association. She is very active in the fiber arts community. She is the Owner of Eugene Textile Center and Co Owner of Glimakra USA also in Eugene Oregon.
