

FIBER ART CLASSES IN TUCSON

The Tucson Handweavers and Spinners Guild welcomes new members who are interested in learning new skills. The Guild has many Study Groups whose members are willing to share and teach others what they know.

For more information, visit www.thsg.org

Here is a partial list of other learning resources in Tucson.

You might also find classes through the Parks & Recreation Departments, Adult Education Departments, and Community Centers around town. There are also many online classes.
